

CV | Marco Schaechtle
Fund manager of the NESTOR Gold

Marco Schaechtle has been deputy portfolio manager of NESTOR Gold since December 2016. In this function, the 32-year-old works closely with the main manager Erich B. Meier.

Marco Schaechtle holds a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in banking and finance from the University of St. Gallen. He wrote his master's thesis on the industrial metals market.

In 2014, Schaechtle joined Zuericher Kantonalbank as a university trainee; he had previously completed an internship there. At the bank, he was part of the asset management equity team and jointly responsible for covering the transport sector. In total, Schaechtle has eight years of experience in asset management with a focus on commodities.
